Round of Play

- Three Card Poker is played with a standard deck of 52 cards.
- The game uses a standard-sized blackjack or poker table.
- The game is played with up to seven (7) players, plus a player dealer.
- The house dealer deals the game.
- Player must place ante before placing optional bonus bet. Bonus bet must be equal to or less than the ante bet.
- Players receive three cards face down. The player/dealer receives three cards, two face down and one face up.
- Once players inspect their hand, they have two options:
 - Fold the hand and forfeit the ante and bonus bet or
 - Stay in the game by making a play bet; this bet must equal the ante.
- Players cannot look at nor have discussions about other players' hands.
- Only one player can bet each hand.
- If the player/dealer does not qualify with the minimum Queen high and the player has the better hand, the player wins the ante bet. If the player/dealer has the better hand in this situation, it is a push.
- If the player/banker qualifies with a minimum Queen high, the play bet also receives action at even money. If the player/dealer does not qualify, the play bet receives no action. The dealer shall immediately refund this bet to the players.
- The Bonus Bet is always in play. This bet is between the player and the TPPPS.
- All bets receive action to the extent that the player/dealer wager covers.
- The round of play ends when the player/dealer exhausts his/her bankroll, or when all player wagers receive full action.
- A player may play two hands but the second hand must be played blind.

Bonus Bet maximum payout is $10,000
